The North Babylon School Board believes in an open budget process, and we encourage all community residents to become involved.

A series of budget meetings planned for this fall will provide an opportunity for community members to offer constructive input early in the process, so that we can gain an understanding of our residents's concerns.

Please make a point to attend as many of these meetings as possible; and have a voice in the structuring of the 2006-2007 budget!

All budget workshops begin at 7:30 p.m. at North Babylon High School:
